Woman

Woman when did you lose it?
Your worth
Your standards
Yourself

So content to settle
For less
Passing each day
With another shadow man
Satisfied to use then lose you

How can you sleep
If your child is hungry
His father is absent
And you are unemployed

Do you care how he sees you
Through his little eyes
How he sleeps with a broken heart
How he feels in his prison of poverty

I think you do not woman
For yet another shadow man will soon arrive
And yet another voiceless victim
Waits in your womb
To enter your colorless world
