When Lovesick Bulls Make War ...

(based on the case of ten bulls and one heifer that actually went before the courts)

When lovesick bulls make war for heifer charms
Some hopeless, helpless, hapless human beings
Impress that yes they suffer much alarm.

Their townhouse atmosphere has come to harm
With rank nocturnal visits and such things
When lovesick bulls make war for heifer charms.

These bovine blunderers attract a swarm
Of filthy flies which residents seeing
Impress that yes they suffer much alarm.

Cud-champers champ rare plants without a qualm
Charge neighbours as if they're capes that matadors fling
When lovesick bulls make war for heifer charms.

Cow-mudgeon at front doors provides no balm
To out-West dwellers who with hands a-wring
Impress that yes they suffer much alarm.

Might not the beasts be searching for a barn
And hay – commodities ownership brings?
The lovesick bulls at war for heifer charms
Impress that yes they suffer much alarm.
